The Second Philadelphia Street Car Strike Doesn't Pan Out-The Leader Expelled from the Union.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.-The street railway strike precipitated last night by the incendiary actions of a few hotheaded agitators against the earnest protests of President Mahon and the other leaders, ended in a complete flas-to, after a few hours in which no dam-ige was done. There was no tle-up and almost every line ran its cars as and almost every me fair that cars as usual. This was because many of the motormen and conductors were opposed to a renewal of the strike and reported to a renewal of the strike and reported for duty at the regular hour. Of those who remained out, all but 132 were brought to their senses by an order issued by the company that all who failed to return to work by 3 o'clock this aftermoon would be permanently discharged. Of the 152 maleontents, forty were employed on one branch. About fifty others not included in this number restrand their positions. The radical men others not included in this number resigned their positions. The radical men who brought about last night's turbulent scenes and to-day's failure, are at odds with President Mahon and threaten to withdraw from the association. Hiram W. Lutz, who presided at the mass-meeting last night and who ordered the strike was summarily expelled to-day from the Amalgamated Association by orders of National President Mahon.
